

Sydney Star Observer Wednesday 2/06/2010

Page: 20
Section: General News
Region: National, AU
Circulation: 20954
Type: Magazines Lifestyle
Size: 220.62 sq.cms.

slice

slicemedia.com

press clip

GIRLS

COAST OUT
Attention surfer chicks and beach bums! CoastOut is the Coffs Coast premier GLBT and friends festival. Come and check out the Coffs coast, 'where the mountains meet the sea', during this three-day festival featuring Australia's first queer surfing contest, beach carnival, entertainment and more. From October 29-31. Visit the CoastOut Facebook page for details.

GIRLS' NIGHT OUT
Try a très chic Cointreau Blush and enjoy a girly night out at Hugo's Lounge in Kings Cross on June 3 from 8-10pm for only $5. Be welcomed with a complimentary Cointreau Blush cocktail on arrival. Enjoy two hours of pampering, pizza and the opportunity to purchase vintage clothing and accessories. info: www.hugos.com.au

BITCHES AND BABES
On June 4, Bitch holds its Winter Wonderland party at the Oxford Art Factory. With a huge white winter installation, fresh DJ talent, snow machines and live vocalists, it's a party not to be missed. Plus there's a search for the July Bitch cover girl. Entry is $10, with a free drink and VIP pass if you get in before 10.30pm.

SEX SCREENING
Life Changing Experiences Foundation is launching the inaugural Sisters In The City fundraising initiative, with two private screenings of Sex And The City 2 at 5pm on Friday, June 4 at Randwick Ritz Cinema. Strut down the pink carpet where you'll receive a Nivea gift bag and a complimentary Cosmopolitan cocktail. All money from ticket sales will be donated to SISTER2sister, a 12-month mentoring program that matches successful women with at-risk teenage girls.

QUEER CENTRAL
Catch DJs Sveta, Miss Gee, Shalyn Gray, Beatrix and Avra Dybele at the Sly Fox every Wednesday night from 9pm. Surprise shows every week by Mitzi Macintosh and Penny Clifford. Free entry, 199 Enmore Rd, Enmore. info: 9557 1016

